

GREENWICH SAILING CLUB – PRIVACY

Greenwich Sailing Club (GSC) collects personal information through the club's membership registration process and via club activities.

GSC is affiliated with Australian Sailing so personal information collected for GSC registration is also stored in the Australian Sailing National Database. Information about Australian Sailing and how they handle personal information can be found here:

<https://www.sailing.org.au/about/privacy-policy/>

Because of this affiliation, GSC is required to comply with the Privacy Act and it's Australian Privacy Principles. See <https://www.oaic.gov.au/privacy/australian-privacy-principles/>

In short, GSC will only use the personal information it collects for club purposes. Typically this will be:

- Contact via club newsletters and communications with members about sailing, training and club social events;
- Committee members may access and use contact details for a next of kin if needed because of an accident;
- Race results are published on the club website;
- Photos of club members taking part in sailing and club activities are regularly uploaded to the club website and Facebook, with archived photos held in cloud storage.

Please advise a member of the club's committee if you do not consent to any photo/s of yourself or of your children/wards being taken, stored or published.

If you have any questions or concerns, please discuss with a member of the club's committee.

October 2019